DIRECTOR: WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM

SUBJECT: CAMBODIA--THE MILITARY SITUATION

Cambodian Army operations to relieve the encircled government positions near Oudong remained stalled on March 21. The Khmer Communists carried out a brief attack yesterday against the government outpost at Lovek, several miles north-east of Oudong.

many of the insurgent units participating in the fighting in this sector are from northwestern Cambodia and that some are seeing action for the first time.

Government troops at Kampot City made some progress yesterday in expanding the city's perimeter to the northeast. No significant fighting occurred in the Phnom Penh area.
